With reference to the attached memo of Deputy Commissioner (Special Branch) dated February 1, 1935, on the subject of a Russian girl named Totsky, dancing partner employed in the Del Monte Cafe, who is alleged to be an agent of the Third International, discreet enquiries show that her real name is Mrs. A. F. Bologovsky.

This individual's particulars and antecedents, as known to this office, are as follows:-

Antonina Fedorovna Bologovsky nee Gnevkovsky was born on 13.7.1907 at Tiflis, Russia. It is reported that she arrived in Manchuria from Russia in 1923 together with her parents. She resided at Mandachedzi Station of the Chinese Eastern Railway until 1926, when she went to Harbin. Some time later she married a Russian named Bologovsky. In May 1932 Mrs. Bologovsky arrived in Shanghai from Harbin together with her daughter aged three years and has since been residing in this city. Her husband, from whom, for reasons unknown, she has been living separately for the past several years, is believed to be in Harbin at present.

Upon her arrival here she resided at No. 734 Avenue Joffre for several months, after which she removed to House No. 2-A, Route de Grouchy, where she is still living together with her elder sister, Mrs. O.F. Pavlovsky, 31, and their mother, Mrs. C.P. Gnevkovsky, 57, widow, who have been resident in Shanghai since 1930 and 1932 respectively.

Mrs. Bologovsky has been employed as a dancing partner at the Del Monte Cafe for over two years. She is generally known there under the name "Tonia" and appears to be fairly successful in her professional capacity. Information in hand also indicates that she is a person of loose morals and that she has been "kept" at various times by different men. During the summer of 1934, it is reported, she visited Japan in company with one of her male friends. They resided in a small place in the district of Tsiba, not far from Tokio, which is seldom visited by foreigners. It is also reported that among the patrons of the Del Monte Cafe there are several individuals, who seem to prefer to be in the company of Mrs. Bologovsky, when visiting that establishment, and that one of them, an employee of the local branch of the National City Bank of New York, is her present paramour.

Mrs. Pavlovsky, her sister, was for some time employed as a waitress at the Cafe Renaissance, Avenue Joffre, after which she has been working as a dancing partner at the Del Monte Cafe. She is of the same type as her sister, as far as her mode of living is concerned. Until recently, it is believed, she was "kept" by an employee of the Standard Vacuum Oil Co.

Enquiries do not elicit any information which could corroborate the allegation regarding Mrs. Bologovsky being an agent of the Third International. Several persons, who have known her and her family for a considerable time while in Shanghai, state that there is nothing whatever in their private life which could suggest that they take an interest in politics or are engaged in any activities connected with politics. They are of humble origin and limited education and their interests are not above those of a typical cabaret girl. Most of the males who visit them at No. 2-A Route de Mouchy or are seen in their company at the Del Monte Cafe and other places, are foreigners of other nationalities than Russian. Among them no person has so far been observed who may be described as a political suspect.

Both Mrs. Bologovsky and all members of her family are registered with either the Russian Emigrants Committee or the Council of the United Russian Public Organizations at Shanghai (SORO).

A copy of Mrs. Bologovsky's photograph is attached.
